Bryan Foss

Non-Executive Director

As Chair of our Nominations Committee and a member of our Audit Committee, Bryan focuses on board culture, constitution, performance and diversity.

Bryan has 26 years of prior experience with IBM deploying complex and customer-led transformation programmes with some of the world's most innovative banks, including best-practice outsourcing, data exploitation and risk management, digital and mobile channels and regulatory compliance.

For more than 10 years Bryan has acted as an independent director and assurance chair on boards of listed firms, public sector finance, fintech and related business-to-business organisations.

As a Visiting Professor with Bristol Business School and lecturer at Henley Business School, Bryan is a recognised business strategist and author, and acts as an adviser to the Financial Reporting Council.
