Team biography:

Paul Marston

Non-Executive Director

Paul is a business banking expert with more than 15 years' experience of providing strategic leadership within both commercial and asset finance, with a particular focus on the SME market.

In his role as Non-Executive Director, Paul provides support to CivilisedBank in its goal to provide SMEs with a unique banking service. He is Chairman of two limited companies and brings with him a wealth of Board experience.

Whilst Managing Director for Business and Commercial Banking at Secure Trust Bank, Paul gained in-depth experience in the challenger bank space.

He was formally Managing Director at RBS and Natwest where he was responsible for commercial banking in South England and South Wales. He has also held national responsibility across Asset Finance in the Business and Commercial SME space as Managing Director at Lombard.
